Dear Pastor,

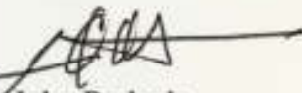

What a thrill it is for me to write this letter of recommendation for Robert (Bob) and Kelly Radank. As Bob's dad, I am excited that they soon will be back in Germany serving as co-laborers with us. As a missionary I am anxious to have qualified fellow-laborers working with us on the field we not only love but where we are both called to serve. As a pastor I am very interested in putting our churches missions money not only where God directs it, but also into a family who will work hard and follow the Lord consistently.

Bob is a second generation missionary. When we moved to Germany in 1997, Bob was 16. He was involved in the work from the beginning. He started by learning some conversational German; he did his best to communicate with our German neighbors and with those in the German churches. He went soul winning in German communities and refugee homes. He often led the singing in the German churches and though I don't have exact totals, he passed out literally thousands of Gospel tracts. Bob was again completely involved when we started the church for the military in 2000, where we are presently serving. He led the singing, preached, taught children's programs and was involved with the day-to-day operations of the church. Now with his college training behind him I am confident that he is more than prepared to continue in the direction God has called him.

Kelly is the daughter of Pastor Chamberlain in Des Moines, IA where she grew up involved in the ministry. She is a hard worker who loves the Lord and her husband. I believe her to be sincere in her desire to follow the Lord as she follows her husband. She has a servant's spirit and is very personable, intelligent and open. I can see her being a tremendous asset and example to the German ladies. It is great to see how much they love each other and from a dad's perspective, the bottom line is, Kelly is great for Bob.

Together, Bob and Kelly make a great team. I am confident you will see this as you have them in your church and as they interact with your people. I encourage you to tap into their talents for the short time they will be with you. You will not regret you did. And of course, let me also encourage you to pray about taking them on for support. I believe with my whole heart that they will not let you down.

Thank you for your time and May God richly bless you and your ministries.
